

Remember, this may the last time you see this group member. Please share with them true and heartfelt feedback regarding the hopes you have for their future, their recovery, their journey, their life, their soul. Etc.

Remember, this may the last time you see this group member. Please share with them true and heartfelt feedback regarding what you appreciate about this person. What have they taught you? What have they added to group? What special memories do you have with this person? Etc?